

They were all filled  with the Holy Spirit
and began to speak in  different tongues,
as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

PENTECOST: COME HOLY SPIRIT 2025

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost, this marks fifty days after the resurrection. It was on this day that God the Father and the Son sent the Holy Spirit on the Apostles. We commemorate this day as the beginning or birthday of the Church. The Apostles had locked themselves up in the room for fear of the Jews, but they were praying with the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Holy Spirit descended upon them giving them the grace and courage to go out and confidently proclaim their faith and announce the good news of Jesus Christ to all. For Christians, Pentecost should be a moment and a celebration of new beginnings, receiving the Holy Spirit should be like getting a new heart and a new life in God, that transforms and empowers us to spontaneously produce good works of God in the world. "Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth" Ps.104:30.

The Spirit that came down on the Church at Pentecost came to gather people who had been scattered, so that those who accept the gospel of Christ and open their hearts to the Holy Spirit may speak a new language that everybody understands--the language of love. The Holy Spirit bestows various gifts on us not just for our good, or to cause division in the Church but to be used for the benefit of the Church and to foster unity and concord among God's people. Let us earnestly Hunger, thirst and pray for the Holy Spirit every moment of our life. "Come Holy Spirit fill the hearts of your faithful and renew the face of the earth."

P.S. I will be away at St Matthew Cathedral in South Bend on Saturday, June 7 to attend the Diocesan priestly ordination of Deacon Andrew Barnes and Deacon Nicholas Monnin. I will also be attending the Thanksgiving Mass of Fr. Andrew Barnes at St. Pius X on Sunday, June 8. Rev. Andrew Barnes was with me during his Seminarian summer work experience at Queen of Peace Church, Mishawaka. Thank God for the gift of new priests for our Diocese. Fr. Luke Okoye and Fr. Gabriel Ezema from Holy Family Parish, in South Bend will be celebrating the confession and Masses this weekend.
