NEW IDEALS FOR TRUE HAPPINESS

In today's Gospel Jesus gave us the Sermon on the Mount, known as the Beatitudes, which is at the heart of Jesus' teaching as it forms the ideals of Christian living and practice. Jesus tells us the things that lead to true happiness and a life of blessedness in God's eyes. For the world happiness comes from power, comfort, and success but Jesus says, "Blessed are the poor in spirit... the meek... the merciful... the peacemakers." In other words, true joy is found not in grasping, but in trusting God, not in attachment to the things of the world but in detachment, not in dominating, but in loving others.

The demands of Beatitudes are not easy, but they are possible, because Jesus lived by them and has given them to us as the new standard for all God's children. When we follow His ideal ways to happiness, even in very little ways, like choosing kindness, over selfishness, forgiveness, over hatred, and trust over doubt, we shall discover a deeper happiness that the world cannot give. May the Holy Spirit grant us the grace to live one Beatitude more intentionally every week, and believe that God's promises are real, even when the path that leads to it looks upside down.

Pope's Intention for February: For children with incurable diseases. Let us pray that children suffering from incurable diseases and their families receive the necessary medical care and support, never losing strength and hope.

Monthly Devotions: The Catholic Church dedicates the month of February to the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. May our families imitate them.

Happy birthday and anniversary to all those celebrating in this month of February, may God bless and keep you in His care! -Fr. John Eze
