"Called and Sent"

God acts first: He saves, forgives, and heals. Our role is to respond with trust, love, and mission. The sending of the Twelve (apostles) symbolizes continuity between Israel and the Church, showing that every member of the Church is sent by Christ to contribute to His mission.

God reveals Himself at Sinai, calling the Israelites to be His treasured possession and a kingdom of priests. This covenant moment shows God's choice and love for His people.

Christ died for us while we were still sinners, reconciling us to God and giving us hope in eternal life.

Jesus, moved with compassion for the crowds, sends His disciples to proclaim the kingdom of heaven. The signs of the kingdom – healing, cleansing, driving out demons – are to be continued by the Church.

Trust in God's call: Like the disciples, we may feel "laborers are few" (Matthew 9:37), but God's harvest is abundant. We are called to see our ordinary lives as part of His mission.

Compassion in action: Respond to the needs of others with the same mercy Jesus showed – healing, reconciliation, and hope.

Prayer and service: Pray for those in need and do one small act of kindness without expectation. This is how we "share freely the gifts we have received".
